Dear Congressman Skelton:

This is in response to your letter of January 30, 2003, concerning the status of the pardon application of Donald Loethen.

Mr. Loethen's pardon request is still under consideration. As I have noted in my previous letters to you concerning this case, final decisions in clemency matters often are not reached for a considerable period of time. As promised in my September 30, 2002 letter, we will notify Mr. Loethen's attorney and will also notify you once Mr. Loethen's case is decided.

I appreciate your continuing interest in Mr. Loethen's case and have made your letter part of his clemency file.

Sincerely,

Roger C. Adams

Dear Congressman Skelton:

This is in response to your letter of October 20, 2003, requesting an update on the pardon petition of Donald Loethen. Unfortunately, I have little to add to my previous letters to you concerning Mr. Loethen's case. His request for a pardon remains under consideration at this time. It is not unusual for a considerable period of time to elapse before a final decision is reached in a clemency matter.

When a decision is made in Mr. Loethen's case, we will immediately notify his counsel and will inform you as well. Thank you for your ongoing interest in Mr. Loethen's pardon request. Your letter will be made part of his file.

Sincerely,
